This is UNEVALUATED Information

A camouflaged radio truck was parked in a clearing in the woods on Kohlenberg, 1.5 km south of Brandis. A seven-sectional directional aerial was on the roof of the truck. A double-wire line, similar to the German heavy field-wire line, led from the radio truck to the east passing the railroad line. Another line of the same type led to the north. *

* Comment.

 the radar set is of the RUS-2 type. The set probably belongs to the fighter regiment stationed in Brandis.
